

An Invitation to Participate...

The Secondary English Education Program at MSU invites 9-12 English faculty to participate in an online research project to enhance teacher preparation and professional development. Participants receive

- Results for comparison of what is taught in Kentucky's English language arts classes.
- Free registration at MSU's English Teacher Connection June 12 conference, featuring Amy Benjamin, President of the NCTE's Assembly for Teaching English Grammar, author of Teaching Grammar: What Really Works
- A complimentary copy of Benjamin's book for attending the conference.

<http://www.eyeoneducation.com/bookstore> <http://www.amybenjamin.com/>

Access the survey by visiting
The English Teacher Connection Blog, <http://engedmsu.blogspot.com/>

for a link to the 20-minute survey and information on the

June 12 MSU English Teacher Connection Conference